Privacy statement

Synvina is committed to safeguarding your privacy online. For the purpose of this policy, Synvina refers to Synvina, Zekeringstraat 29, 1014 BV Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

Synvina collects personally identifiable information, such as names, addresses, email addresses and the like, only when voluntarily provided by a website visitor.

Your personal information is used by Synvina personnel, only for the purpose stated at the time it is collected, e.g. to reply to your questions or to provide a requested service. It is accessed by Synvina employees only on a need-to-know basis. Your personal data is never used for secondary or unrelated purposes unless otherwise requested or explicitly agreed by you.

It is Synvina's policy never to share, trade, sell or otherwise disclose personal information to third parties without your informed consent or direction.

When you apply for a job through our website, you are providing personal information related to the job application procedure, including in many instances a copy of your résumé. Your personal information is received directly by members of our human resources department, and is shared only with relevant Synvina staff members on a need-to-know basis.

When you are visiting our website, our web server does not recognize your IP address, domain name or email address. This website does not use cookies.

When you give Synvina personal information, we take steps to ensure that your information is treated securely. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, Synvina cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your transmission, we make our best effort to ensure its security on our systems.

We may disclose and use personally identifiable information in special circumstances where it is necessary to enforce our rights (for example, when necessary to protect our intellectual property rights). We may also disclose or use your personal information when we, in good faith, believe that the law requires us to do so.

If you wish to contact us with regards to this privacy policy, you may do so:
